

Juan Pablo Covarrubias

Professional Summary

Motivated Management and Instructor focused on applying business acumen and project Management skills to transform company cultures and operations. Resourceful and disciplined professional with a proactive approach. Ready to apply 25 years of experience to a challenging position as Firefighter.

Highly motivated Firefighter with in-depth knowledge of safely suppressing fires. Capable of thinking quickly under pressure and remaining calm in stressful situations. Offering 25 years of experience in efficiently responding to Industrial fire and Hazmat alarms.

Hardworking Responder prepared to leverage lead by example, integrity and professional abilities to take on new role as First Responder.

Knowledgeable, hands-on manager proficient in all hazmat scenarios, detailing options and response procedures.

Work History

Williams Fire & Hazard Control - Territory Manager for South America-Mexico-Caribbean

Houston, TX

12/31/2018 - Present

- Emergency Response Contractor for Industrial Fires.
- Responsible for industrial fire response teams and needs coordinator.
- Coordinator for International Response in Industrial Fire.

Transportation Technology Center Inc. - International Programs Coordinator and HAZMAT Instructor

Pueblo, CO

01/2008 - 12/31/2018

- Leader and coordinator of Hazmat training programs and firefighter certification.
- Responsible for creative design for prominent Spanish Training in Hazmat for South America.

Firefighter and Hazmat Contractor

- Firefighter (Industrial and Municipal) for 25 years, Hazmat Contractor for 15 years.

Skills

- Team Player and Disciplined
- Committed and Passionate
- Self-motivated

Education

2004

Chilean Institute of Technology, INACAP

Santiago, Chile

Bachelor of Applied Science: Safety And Health Engineer

2004

University of Chile

Santiago, Chile

Bachelor of Management Studies:

Quality Control and Safety Technologies

Additional Information

Spanish Spoken and written fluent.